

- The Carlson range of process filtration products includes:
- Process filter cartridges and filter bags for use in beverage, pharmaceutical, chemical and general industrial applications
- Cartridges available in most types, including wound, resin bonded, spun-bonded, mesh, sintered and pleated
- Filter bags available in most common felt, multi and mono filament materials, sizes and styles
- Bag filter and cartridge housings
- Filter Media including P.E.S. membrane glass, polypropylene, cellulose, acrylic, viscose, polyester, nylon, teflon, activated carbon and stainless steel. Ratings are from 0.1 micron (absolute) to 1,000 microns (nominal). Products are available in most end cap fittings and lengths up to 40 inches (100cm).
- Filter papers to cover a wide range of laboratory and industrial applications

